An enthusiastic audience of 1350 women attended the opening-night of The Gettysburg Times-Cooking School Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Hotel Gettysburg annex during which Miss Madeline D. Linehan, home economist and lecturer, prepared menus pleasing for summer months. Miss Linehan conducted cooking schools at Littlestown and at the South Mountain fairgrounds earlier this month. She will preside at the cooking school tonight and at the closing session to be held Friday evening at which 16 major awards, headed by a $339.95 "Magic Cycle" Kelvinator electric refrigerator, will be given away. Doors will be open each night at 6:30 o'clock at the annex.

Assisted by Ann Gregory, economist, whom she introduced, Miss Linehan showed the audience how to prepare a unique dish called "lamb kabobs." Cutting the meat into cubes and alternating with bacon and mushrooms, she marinated the kabobs in French dressing, declaring that the dish is "a good one to spring on company."

"What appeals to the eye," explained the New Englander, "will also appeal to the appetite" as she prepared a rice mold and filled it with sauteed red beets, achieving a red and white contrast for a bright table touch.

Different Corn Bread

The culinary expert told how corn bread can be "so different" by adding shredded coconut and she recommended appleauce drop cookies as a quick summer dessert, displaying the golden-brown batch which she had baked.

"Shrimp rarebit can be changed into a tuna or crab rarebit," she revealed. "If you use half tomato juice and half milk, the sauce will turn pink, a pleasing sight for a gourmet," patty shells can be prepared by molding bread in muffin tins and baking them until they turn a crisp toasty brown. . . . graham crack pudding, a conception for the refrigerator, can be varied with vanilla and strawberries or butterscotch . . . and top with whipped cream."

"A versatile dressing is one we call 'celery seed dressing,'" explained the speaker. "Use it on hearts of lettuce or mix it in with coleslaw."

Feature Penguin Salad

The piece de resistance of the evening was the penguin salad prepared by decorating hard-cooked eggs with bits of carrots for feet and ripe black olives for the head and wings. The bird had an almond for a beak and slivered almonds for eyes. Four whole cloves formed the buttons. Placed on beds of crisp lettuce and arranged among tomatoes cut in petal fashion, the dish was refreshing, even to the eye.

Miss Linehan introduced Mrs. Betty Wible, York, representative of the Metropolitan Edison Company, who discussed modern electrical appliances and demonstrated how they are used. On the stage were ranges, a water heater and washers, which she used to supplement her talk.

Following Mrs. Wible's lecture, a fashion show was presented by Tobey's store, Gettysburg, an innovation in the cooking school this year. Anna Mae Bigham modeled a light grey skirt, and a white blouse over which she wore a red bolero-type sweater. She wore a broad black belt and carried a summer-weight basket purse. Nancy Sanders appeared in a red and white striped summer sport casual, "cool as peppermint," white gloves and carried a red purse. Doris Swope modeled a navy and white summer sheer frock with white collar and cuffs and carried a basket purse adorned with summer flowers.

Prizes Are Awarded

The food prepared by Miss Linehan was distributed as follows: Penguin salad, Mrs. Rufus H. Bushman, 44 N. Stratton St.; Maddy's corn bread, Mrs. Roland Derr, McKnightstown; shrimp

Ike, Churchill And Mayer Will Talk Peace In Bermuda

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower, Prime Minister Churchill of Great Britain and Premier Mayer of France will meet soon, probably in Bermuda, in an effort to advance the cause of world peace.

Announcing this today, the White House said the meeting of the Big Three leaders probably will be held the latter part of June.

The White House issued this statement by Eisenhower:

"The governments of the United States, Great Britain and France have been in consultation with the view of holding an informal high-level meeting."

"We have agreed that such a meeting is desirable at a date convenient to all of us."

"A primary purpose will be further to develop common viewpoints with these friends on the many problems that must be solved cooperatively so that the cause of world peace may be advanced."

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty told a news conference that plans for the meeting were being announced simultaneously in Washington, London and Paris.

Hagerty said Eisenhower's reference to a high-level meeting meant a conference of the President, Churchill and Mayer.

Hagerty added there had been no definite decision as to where the session would be held, but that Churchill had suggested Bermuda.

"The President of the United States has no objection to that," Hagerty said.

He added that he understood Mayer also has no objections to Bermuda as a meeting place.

Saying no definite date for the conference has been fixed, Hagerty called attention to the fact that Churchill must be in London June 2 for the coronation of Queen Elizabeth.

He also noted that Eisenhower will leave Washington June 10 for a series of speeches in Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, New Hampshire and New York.

The President is scheduled to return to Washington from this trip on June 14, and Hagerty said the Big Three conference probably would be held soon after that date.

BANKER SAYS INFLATIONARY TREND IS BROKEN

There are signs that the inflationary trend in this country is being stopped, Robert O. Bonnell, vice president of the Fidelity Trust Co. of Baltimore, told the Adams County Bankers Association Wednesday evening at a dinner meeting in the New Oxford Lutheran Church.

"The economic stability of one affects all. There are thousands of little businesses as well as the huge 'blue chip' businesses. And all play their part in our national economy. The general prosperity of the little businesses affects the big ones; the prosperity of the millions of white collar people affects the prosperity of the pressure groups. We cannot have a stable prosperity unless all are prosperous."

"With the inflation over the past years the little businesses have been increasingly in trouble. Prices have been high, taxes high, help inefficient, and they have been having increasing difficulties in making a go of it."

Middle Class Affected

"The white collar class has been beset by the same difficulties. This great middle class has had to either lower its standards of living or some other member of the family has had to also work to help keep up the standards. For many it has meant that the breadwinner has had to have two jobs, and thousands have done that, adding part time employment to their regular work. And even then their task has been increasingly difficult."

"We have had as much inflation as we can stand. And now the signs point toward a readjustment, a halt to inflation. Some business has been slackening off during this readjustment period. But the change-over has not been as bad as feared. For an example while used cars have been slackening in sales, new cars have been in good demand."

Active In Community

Bonnell told the group: "The successful banker, like any other successful businessman, must be active in the community."

Decide Silo Is Not Building; Buy One

A silo is a manufactured piece of equipment and not a building. That was the decision reached by the Adams County commissioners Wednesday afternoon after studying the laws effecting replacement of silos at the county home farm. Since the law does not specifically state what can be done about a silo the commissioners had to decide which "law" affects the ensilage holders.

Since silos are good for only one thing — holding silage, and since chemical changes take place in the material put into them, and since they are patented by the companies making them, the commissioners decided the structures are equipment.

They proceeded to order a Marietta 12 by 35 foot silo from Quintin D. Rebert, Littlestown R. D., to replace the 32-year-old wooden silo now at the county home. Since the present silo was three feet "out of plumb" the commissioners were afraid that if they loaded it, it would fall. The new silo will be placed on the foundation of the old one within the next two weeks.

KNOUSE FOODS STAFF BRIEFED ON YEAR'S WORK

Knouse Foods foreladies, supervisors and plant superintendents met Wednesday in the Peach Glen plant cafeteria in a pre-season conference to hear company officials describe a streamlined organizational program to be inaugurated this year to more effectively coordinate the company's production effort. The group, which included 30 foreladies and supervisors, and plant superintendents and their clerks, toured the Peach Glen plant following a luncheon in the cafeteria.

E. J. Nowicki Jr., head of production, outlined production, operating and employment programs necessary to coordinating revised production schedules resulting from the expansion of facilities at all four Knouse Foods plants. He placed emphasis on leadership, safety precautions, greater understanding of personnel problems, sanitation, waste control and job supervision.

"Knouse Foods is a community institution — owned by growers, operated by growers, supported by growers and manned by local residents who are members and friends of grower's families. They are equally concerned with the progress of the fruit industry, a factor that has aided us tremendously in meeting the constantly increasing demands of the processed fruit industry," he said.

M. E. Knouse, president, told the group that in his opinion more demands are being placed on individuals every day to oppose the type of "fatalistic thinking" that has played a strong part in defeating the economy and morale of so many European countries. He urged the group to assume its share of responsibility in helping to influence constructive thinking and attitudes in their communities and on their jobs.

Expect Cherries July 1

Dr. James R. Oyer, technical director, pointed out the necessity of economical and effective trimming of raw fruits necessary to maintaining the uniform high quality of Knouse packed foods, and at the same time emphasized the need to guard against unnecessary waste in trimming.

Carl Westerdahl, personnel contact man, reviewed specific points of information necessary to the personnel and payroll departments and reported on the safety records for all plants last year.

Mr. Nowicki said that from reports given him by the procurement department, cherry processing will start at Peach Glen and Orrtanna about the first of July. This marks the first time cherries have been received and processed at the Peach Glen plant.

BANKER SAYS

cessful man, has a deep interest in the people with whom he does business. He must see that the credit of the community is not buried against a later day and must make sure at the same time that it is used wisely. He must justify the confidence his depositors have in him, and must also justify the confidence of those who borrow from him, for he must be in a position to give them the best possible advice. He must be a healthy influence individually in the community, the church, the cultural life of the community. The people of a community expect their banker to give of his time and best effort to all good community activities.

"We speak as bankers of improving public relations. But good public relations are but a reflection of good customer relations. It is simply giving the public the kind of service it wants, when it wants it and where it wants it. To do that we need an informed, courteous, interested personnel in our banks. We expect the professional man in the community to have years of training and to pass difficult examinations before he can practice. Yet, far too frequently, we give our bank employees little or no training in their work as bankers. Only capable employees can give the type of service that makes for good public relations — and better banks."

To Meet June 17
Edmund W. Thomas, in introducing Bonnell, said that he is a former president of the Public Bank of Maryland, that he had served previously in banks in California, Denver, St. Louis and New York City, that he is a director of the Central Savings Bank of Baltimore, president of Maryland Hospital Service, former president of the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra, a member of the Baltimore airport board and chairman of the Republican Finance committee of Maryland.

Chester S. Byers, Littlestown, president of the county bankers association, presided at the meeting. He announced that 73 attended the Federal Reserve meeting held for bankers from three counties at Graffenburg Inn Tuesday night. M. E. Knoose, Arendtsville, one of the speakers, told the bankers that with low inventories on its shelves the fruit industry should be "in good shape" this year.

The next meeting of the bankers will be held at Arendtsville June 17 with Henry Nelson, assistant cashier of the Federal Reserve bank at Philadelphia, as speaker.

The bankers consider the purchase of a film on banking to be made available to the schools and general public.

TWENTY YEARS AGO
County Couple Wed in Frederick: Miss Helen Spangler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Spangler, Gardners, and Dale Slaybaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Slaybaugh, Aspers, were united in marriage at Frederick, Maryland, last Saturday, by the Rev. Dr. Amos John Traver, pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church.

Mr. Slaybaugh is employed by the C. H. Musselman company.

Local Man Promoted: Huber Blocher, who has been employed by the American Collier company, has been promoted to district manager with headquarters in Boston. The Blocher family will move to Concord, Massachusetts, in the near future, to take up permanent residence.

Personal Property of Country Club Is Sold: Personal property of the Quaker Valley country club, Guernsey, was sold at public sale by Sheriff John C. Wible Wednesday morning and brought $140.96. The real estate will be sold in front of the court house on Saturday afternoon, June 3. The property was levied upon for unpaid taxes due the Butler township school board.

Auxiliary Tea Monday Afternoon: Plans have been completed for the tea to be given Monday afternoon at the nurses' home by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Annie M. Warner hospital. The following Biglerville members of the auxiliary will act as hostesses: Mrs. S. G. Bigham, first vice president, will pour, assisted by Mrs. Blaine G. Walter. The following ladies will serve: Mrs. Paul Osborne, Mrs. Lloyd Kleinfelter, Mrs. Orrie Nary, Mrs. J. D. Miller, Mrs. Allen Coddington, Mrs. U. L. Kleinfelter.

The tea is given in honor of Mrs. Alice Liveright, secretary of welfare of Pennsylvania, who will be guest speaker.

Emmitsburg's Mayor Takes Over Duties: Ceremonies inducting Emmitsburg's newly elected burgess, M. J. "Mike" Thompson, and town commission Thornton W. Cars lined the main streets of the town and hundreds of people stood on the square and along the sidewalks to view the parade.

Open Tap Room: George F. Eberhart, proprietor of the Eagle hotel, on Friday announced the formal opening of a tap room and a private dining room at the hotel. The tap room will be under the supervision of Arthur "Shorty" Hughes, of Gettysburg.

Ivy Planting, New Feature: Ivy Day, an innovation that promises to be a cherished tradition in future years, was auspiciously celebrated on the Gettysburg college campus Friday. The class of 1933 sponsored the affair.

At eleven o'clock in the morning a formal academic procession marched to the college library, where Raymond Sheely, president of the graduating class, delivered the mantle oration. Gordon Whitcraft and John Bankert, honor men of the class, planted the ivy, while Sheely spoke.

In behalf of next year's class, Robert Nix received the mantle and made the response for the class of 1934. Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson spoke on "Traditions." The ceremony ended with the singing of the Alma Mater.

MIRACLE DAYS

These are the miracle days
When soil and sun and rain
Shame man and his feeble ways
With beauty and scent again.

This is the time of the year
When marvelous works are wrought
And exquisite designs appear,
Excelling man's skill and thought.

This is the time called spring,
When nature taunts boastful man
With, "Make me a bird to sing,
Or a violet if you can."

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

THE OBVIOUS

The obvious thing to do is always the best thing. Many a long conference or convention discussion could easily and quickly be ended if people would only recognize the obvious solution. And nearly always there is an obvious solution — one most people miss.

Obvious is but another name for common sense. You don't cut corners, but go right to the heart and meat of a thing when you look the obvious thing in the face and accept it. What time it often saves, what a lot of worries are sidetracked by it. We are forever complicating problems, and even life itself. The rules of success and a happy way of life are really simple and easily spotted, if a little thinking is used!

Someday someone is going to write an interesting personal story about Henry Ford and his genius for putting his finger upon the obvious and important, without wasting time and effort. It was uncanny the way he did it. He surrounded himself with able and expert men, but none of them approached a problem in so few words and with such sure knowledge. Some even called him "ignorant" — but no one ever built a business empire so great and far reaching and with such magic!

Just to talk with him in one of his habitual joyous moods was an unforgettable experience.

I like that story told about the meeting of Dr. Johnson and his old school-mate, Edwards. Said Edwards: "You are a philosopher, Dr. Johnson. I have tried too in my time to be a philosopher; but I don't know, cheerfulness was always breaking in!" Can anyone think of a surer way to become a philosopher than to live by the simple rules that guarantee happiness? I have a book on philosophy, composed of the writings of many heralded men, but I can't get head or tail out of it! I like the Edwards type best, the one that welcomes "cheerfulness."

The rules of nature are not complicated. If we live by them, we learn the shortest and happiest way of life — the obvious one. The smile travels a longer distance than the frown!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Readjustments." Protected, 1953, George Matthew Adams Service

Roosevelt Takes Slap at Germany

ANNUAL SESSION MEASURE GOES BEFORE HOUSE

HARRISBURG (AP)—A new annual sessions bill to replace one declared "unworkable" was before the House today.

The measure, introduced by Reps. Norman Wood (R-Lancaster) and H. G. Andrews (D-Cambria), would take the place of one passed by the 1951 Legislature that provided for the Legislature to meet during March of the year of a governor's inauguration.

The constitution, however, specifies that the governor's election must be certified by the Legislature before he can take office. This made the 1951 measure, passed by the Senate last month, technically unworkable.

In the new proposal the General Assembly would consider only revenue-raising bills in even-numbered years.

Three-Month Gap
Under the old bill there would be a three-month gap between the governor's inauguration and the March convening of the Legislature.

The General Assembly would meet on the first Tuesday of each January under the new measure. The bill, a proposed constitutional amendment, must pass the current session and the 1955 session before going to the voters. When such measures are amended they must start at the beginning of the five year process before becoming law.

Other new House bills would: Make state-aid payments to schools for kindergartens based on the number of teachers instead of the number of pupils—Reps. Wood and W. Stuart Helm (R-Armstrong).

Other Memories
Exempt Civil Air Patrol motor vehicles from payment of the state registration fee—Rep. John T. Van Sant (R-Lehigh).

Prohibit youths under 18, and under 16 when working on a farm, from working more than 40 hours a week instead of the present 44-hour restriction—Reps. Michael J. Needham and Joseph G. Wargo, Lackawanna Democrats.

Require members of municipal authorities to serve without pay—Reps. Wood and Helm.

Require the approval of the voters before school districts can enter into contracts with the State Public School Building Authority or any municipal authority—Reps. Helm and Wood.

and Japan: Washington, May 16 (AP)—President Roosevelt asked the world today to give up offensive weapons of war and unite for peace and economic recovery.

In a message immediately interpreted on Capitol Hill as constituting particularly plain speaking to Germany, the president admonished all foreign potentates to give up "petty" national aim or the civilized world would know where to place the blame.

Prison Probers Recommend Institutions Be Placed In Hands Of Justice Department

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Warden Dr. John W. Claudy of Western State Penitentiary submitted his resignation today to the prison board of trustees. It will be effective June 30.

Dr. Claudy said he desires to retire on a state pension.

By JOHN KOENIG JR.
HARRISBURG (AP)—A recommendation to transfer all eight Pennsylvania penal institutions from the Welfare Department to the Justice Department today highlighted a special prison probe report.

The report, made public by Gov. John S. Fine yesterday, cited the Welfare Department for "lack of power, lack of planning and lack of dynamic, progressive leadership."

At the same time it rapped the administration of Western State Penitentiary at Pittsburgh for poor food handling, haphazard work assignments for prisoners, bad security regulations and unsanitary premises.

"We discovered a general atmosphere of laxity at Western which we were not to discover in the same degree elsewhere," the committee reported.

It was after a riot at Western State last Jan. 18 and an ensuing five-day disturbance at Rockview State Penitentiary that Fine named a five-man committee headed by Gen. Jacob L. Devers to investigate state prison conditions.

100-Page Report
Other committee members were John C. Burke, Wisconsin state prison warden; Joseph E. Ragen, warden of the Joliet, Ill., state prison; William Witherow, Pittsburgh industrialist, and Judge Burton R. Laub of Erie County.

The 100-page report did not mention either Warden John W. Claudy of Western State Penitentiary or Welfare Secretary William C. Brown by name.

It cited the sprawling duties of the Welfare Department—which include also administration of the state's mental hospitals and numerous other institutions—and said the more compact Justice Department would be better able to handle the commonwealth's prisons.

"The Department of Welfare is now, and has been for years, in a state of stagnation insofar as prison administration is concerned and has become little more than a depository for papers," the Devers report charged.

"Inherent Weakness"
While much of the "inherent weakness and personnel of the current structure has been inherited from the past, antiquity does not necessarily argue merit," the report added.

The attorney general is equipped to handle the prisons, the report said, because he is charged with all law enforcement in the commonwealth, drafts legislation, acts as legal advisor to all state departments and agencies and is a member of the State Pardons Board.

Even though the Justice Department should have placed under it the state police and the State Parole Board, as the Chesterman State Government Survey Committee has recommended, it still would be capable of handling the prisons, the report asserted.

The committee also recommended construction of a new institution for defective delinquents, reduction of the prison population at both Western and Eastern State Penitentiaries to 500, an increase in State Parole Board membership from three to five members and a pay increase for prison employees.

Control In One Agency
The committee emphasized its recommendation that control of all state penal institutions should be centralized under one agency at Harrisburg.

This would be accomplished, it said, by establishing a Bureau of Correction within the Justice Department. The bureau would be headed by a commissioner of correction responsible to the attorney general.

Fine made public the report with a statement that the committee's findings showed that "with certain changes in plan and some new construction, the penal institutions of the commonwealth can become one of the finest systems in the country."

Fine said all recommendations which can be executed by his office will be put into effect immediately.

"Also I have instructed Atty.-Gen. Woodside to draft legislation to put into effect most, if not all, of the recommendations of the committee requiring legislative action," he added.

It is estimated there are around 400 active and many more inactive volcanoes in the world.

Warriors Win First South Penn Baseball Title By Defeating Hanover 7-3 In Final Contest

Gettysburg High School today rules as the new champion of the South Penn Baseball League, the result of defeating Hanover here Wednesday afternoon 7-3 in the final game of the season.

The title is the first ever gained by the Warriors since the organization of the circuit in 1947. Chambersburg won the honors the first four years while Hanover won in 1951 and 1952.

Marlin "Skip" Fisel, a senior, hurling his last scholastic game, turned in a brilliant performance and fanned no less than 16 batsmen. He gave up only four hits and walked two. His mound opponent, Lefty Sandruck, yielded eight hits, struck out six and walked one.

Both teams gave their hurlers comparatively poor support, four errors being charged to the Warriors and five to the Nighthawks.

Hanover tallied a pair of unearned runs in the first inning. Schue led off with an infield dribbler which was fielded by Fisel who threw to Don Dentler. Schue was safe when Dentler missed the throw. G. Rohrbach fanned. On a hit and run, Leister singled to right field. The ball eluded Jay Sixeas and Schue raced across after a poor throw to the plate. Leister then tallied on a wild pitch.

The Warriors took the lead with three tallies in the third. With one out, Bob Hixon beat out an infield tap to shortstop. Sixeas bunted and Sandruck threw the ball into center field in an attempt to nab Hixon at second base. Hixon streaking to third. Sixeas then stole second base and both runners scored when Danny Roth punched a single to center. Roth stole second moved to third on George Penn's long fly to left. Bobby Rohrbach singled to drive over Roth.

Haw. Tie Score
Hanover knotted the count with a tainted run in the fifth. Two were out when Schue beat out a topped ball along the third base line. He stole second base before G. Rohrbach batted. Leister bounced to Bender and the bases were loaded when no one covered second base to take Bender's throw. A wild pitch enabled Schue to score.

The Warriors came right back with a run in their half of the frame. Roth beat out a bunt and reached second on Gobrecht's error on the throw. Penn's third strike was on a wild pitch and he reached base. After Rohrbach struck out, Jay Hartzell singled home Roth.

Set Up Decision
Three more runs in the sixth, all unearned, clinched the decision. After one was out, Hixon singled to left. Sixeas was saved on an error and Roth beat out a hit to short to load the bases. Penn forced Hixon at the plate on an infield grounder. Rohrbach groundout to Brock and all runners raced home as Brock threw wide of first base.

The victory gives the Warriors an over-all season record of 4-3.

Coach Howard Shoemaker watched the contest from an auto, having been confined to his home by illness for several days. Rogers Herr was in charge of the team.

After the Elks had gained a 3-1 lead via a three-run outburst in the fifth, the Texas Lunch roared back with three runs in the sixth on singles by Penn, Kerr and Orndorff, a fly to right by Small, an infield out, and a two-run double by O'Brien. The lunchmen picked up another tally in the seventh.

A three-run homer in the third by Bud Knox featured for the Moose who were extended all the way by the Lentz Legion. Three double clinched the contest with three runs in the final inning. Three double plays thwarted many threats made by the Legionnaires.

Native Dancer Impressive in Workout Today

BALTIMORE (AP)—A sparkling workout by Alfred G. Vanderbilt's Native Dancer this morning preceded his entry along with six other three-year-olds for the 77th Preakness on Saturday.

Trainer Bill Winfrey watched the spectacular gray colt run three-quarters of a mile in one minute, 11 and four-fifths seconds before naming him to make his first effort at atonement for his lone defeat in the Kentucky Derby.

Native Dancer's workout was only one and three-fifths seconds slower than the Pimlico Track record, according to Winfrey's watch. Other clockers caught him a shade faster.

Native Dancer, winner of 12 and loser of one race, will have jockey Eric Guerin as usual in the saddle for the mile race.

No Surprise Entries
There were no surprise entries among the six others, Cain Hoy stable's Dark Star, Eugene Constantin Jr.'s Royal Bay Gem, Spring Hill Farm's Jamie K, Bruce Campbell's Ram O'War, Ben Whitaker's Tahitian King and Mrs. Gordon Gulberson's Correspondent.

It was Dark Star who hung the defeat on Native Dancer and who in turn was beaten here Monday by Royal Bay Gem in the Preakness Prep.

Jockey Henry Moreno will be astride Dark Star and Him Combent on Royal Bay Gem.

Bob Summers replaces Eddie Arcaro, who rode Correspondent to fifth in the derby. Arcaro has shifted to Jamie K.

Hedley Woodhouse has been nominated to ride Tahitian King. The only doubtful riding assignment is for Ram O'War, the ninth Derby horse which was ridden by Doug Dodson. The Towson, Md., owner is seeking jockey Charley Burr instead.

The $100,000 race is scheduled to start at 4:45 p. m. EST.

READING WINS 2 GAMES WITH FINE PITCHING

By The Associated Press

One night Reading does it with home runs, the next night with pitching.

The Indians last night widened their lead in the Eastern League to 2½ games by coping a double-header from Albany, 3-1 and 2-1.

Reading was given an assist by the Williamsport Athletics, who ended second-place Binghamton's six-game winning streak with a 6-2 defeat.

In other games, Wilkes-Barre beat Schenectady, 5-1, and Scranton edged Elmira, 4-3.

The big guns in Reading's twin triumph were pitchers Leo Daley, a left-hander, and Floyd Penfold, a right-hander. In the opener Daley smothered the Senators with two hits, both made after the sixth inning. Penfold although in trouble often, was effective in the clutches.

Smashes 3 Homers
The big gun in Reading's victory over Albany Tuesday night was outfielder Rocky Covolto who hit three successive home runs. He was hitless last night in five official times at bat.

Binghamton's Ossie Schultz lost a pitcher's duel to Mike Van Brabant when the Triplet defense collapsed. Three errors on one play in the seventh inning permitted two runs to score, and an error on the next play made it four.

Van Brabant held the Trips to six hits for his third victory. Schultz gave up nine and was handed his second defeat.

Ramon Rodriguez, huge Scranton catcher, spoiled Goose Gostlin's bid for a fifth victory by driving in three of the Miners' four runs.

COLES RESIGNS FROM OLYMPIC COMMITTEE

MELBOURNE (AP)—The resignation of Arthur W. Coles, the guiding hand behind Australia's plans to stage the 1956 Olympic Games, left this city shocked and bewildered today.

No one seemed to know just which way to turn.

One official said weakly that he did not think Coles' resignation as chairman of the Olympic Games Control Committee would affect the situation.

Another said he would appeal to Coles to reconsider. Out of the maze of conflicting statements and arguments that have harassed Coles for the past six months, there emerged one clear-cut fact—that this latest internal dispute could well mean the end of any chance Australia has of staging the games.

When told of Coles' resignation, Avery Brundage, president of the International Olympic Committee, said in Chicago that the IOC executive committee may hold an emergency meeting to consider another city for the games.

Won't Change Mind
The chance of Coles' changing his mind appeared slim. He has worked almost without letup and on numerous occasions has surmounted obstacles that would have discouraged a less determined official. But when the Victorian State Government declined to build the Olympic swimming pool in Fawcner Park, the site which was accepted by the IOC at its meeting in Mexico City last month, he decided he'd had enough.

Originally, the Victoria State Government refused to sanction the Fawcner Park pool, but finally yielded to Coles' committee. Then last Thursday, the government gave in to instructions from the Labor Party and scrapped the Fawcner Park plan with the explanation that it clashed with labor policy because it involved alienation of parklands.

If Melbourne lose the games, Rome, San Francisco, Lausanne, Philadelphia and New York all have been mentioned prominently as being eager to stage the event.

Home Run In 14th For Del Wilbur Wins For Red Sox Over Browns; A's, Senators, Yankees Winners

By BEN PHLEGAR

AP Sports writer
If the Boston Red Sox can figure out some way to beat the other Eastern teams they will be a real pennant threat in the American League. They've got the Western clubs solved for sure.

The Sox finished up a profitable home stand against the est in sensational fashion yesterday. With two out in the 14th inning—

Del Wilbur blasted his third pinch-hit home run of the year to give them a 3-2 triumph over the St. Louis Browns.

Wilbur's blow off Don Larsen propelled Boston all the way from fourth place to second in the standings, three games behind the pace-setting New York Yankees.

A's Nips Chicago
The Eastern American League clubs as a whole were downright inhospitable to their Western visitors during the intersectional series and all four of them ended with victories. The Athletics defeated Chicago, 2-1. Washington whipped Cleveland, 8-3, and New York trimmed Detroit, 9-8. All in all the Eastern teams won 20 and lost 11 during the West-East meetings which began May 12.

In the National League the Western teams, playing at home, managed to gain the upper hand, but only by a margin of 16 games to 13. In yesterday's finales Cincinnati thumped the league-leading Philadelphia Phillies, 14-5; Milwaukee bowed for the second straight day to Brooklyn, 7-2; Chicago took a 16-6 lacing from the New York Giants and St. Louis won an 11-6 slugfest from the Pittsburgh Pirates.

LAYOFFS HIT AUTO PLANTS; PARTS HELD UP BY STRIKERS

DETROIT (AP)—Layoffs engulfed or threatened 150,000 or more auto workers today as half a dozen major manufacturers reported their flow of parts choked off by supplier strikes.

Ford, Chrysler, Studebaker, Willys, Nash and International Harvester all figured in the mushrooming production cuts.

They attributed their moves to three supplier strikes: at Ford's Canton, O., forge plant; at Borg-Warner's Warner Gear Division plant at Muncie, Ind., and at the Budd Company car body stamping plant here.

Here's The Situation

This was the situation: Ford laid off an unannounced number of employees at its big Rouge plant in neighboring Dearborn yesterday and said that was the start of layoffs which will idle 85,000 employees across the nation within the next five days. The company said a month-long tieup at its key Canton plant had cut off its only source of forgings for cars and trucks.

Chrysler sent 27,000 employees home from its Chrysler, De Soto and Dodge assembly plants here yesterday. It said a jurisdictional dispute at the Budd plant had halted the inflow of car bodies. About 8,000 Budd workers were idle.

Studebaker, Willys, Nash and International Harvester all said the Warner Gear strike, also a month old, was hurting them.

Many Affected

Studebaker announced last night

it was cutting from three-shift to one-shift operations next Monday because of a lack of transmissions normally supplied by Warner. Only cars with automatic transmissions will be assembled, the company said. It was uncertain, a spokesman said, how many of Studebaker's 23,000 workers might be affected.

Willys halted all car production and completed the layoff of 8,500 workers yesterday for a lack of transmissions. Another 3,000 employees in non-auto divisions were kept on the job.

Some 4,400 Nash workers at Milwaukee and Kenosha, Wis., plants have been idle since Monday because of the Warner strike.

International Harvester has laid off more than 3,000 production workers at Springfield, O., for the same reason.

Of the 85,000 Ford workers facing layoffs, 55,000 are in the Detroit area and the others scattered from Massachusetts to California.

About a quarter of the land area of Chile is in islands off the coast.

ian Warthen graduated from St. Agnes Hospital School of Nursing, May 12. Both Miss Adams and Miss Warthen will remain at the hospital until September to complete extra duties.

Vacation In Florida

The Misses Mina and Sue Little, Baltimore, have returned home after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. George Lingg and other relatives at St. Anthony's.

John Mick, U. S. Navy, Portsmouth, Va., and Rosemary Sanders, Washington, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Sanders.

Mrs. Bernard Eckenrode and children and Mrs. Elizabeth Crockett, mother of Mrs. Eckenrode, left Sunday for a three-week vacation in Florida.

Linwood Mick, U. S. Navy, visited over the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Seltzer. He has finished his training at Great Lakes and expects to go to South America.

Mr. and Mrs. George Spriggs and family, Camp Hill, visited over the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wevill.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilhide and family spent Sunday afternoon at the Washington zoo. They were accompanied by Mrs. Estelle Watkins who visited with relatives in Bethesda, Md.

Mrs. Louis Orndorff, who for the past six weeks has been a patient at the University of Maryland Hospital, is now recuperating at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Peters, Towson, Md. Her condition is reported by the family as satisfactory.

Oldest GOP Congressman Is Losing Fight To Cut Taxes

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP)—It was a nice fight while it lasted.
Rep. Daniel Allen Reed, New York Republican, had his heart set on cutting taxes in 1953. He seemed truly angry Monday, when he told President Eisenhower wants tax cuts this year, that he said: "When I fight, I fight."
Yesterday, one day later, he led ground to the Eisenhower press. And before many weeks over the 77-year-old Reed, with years in the House, may find himself boxed in and beaten. He's led in a little now.
Reed, oldest Republican in the House in continuous service, is chairman of one of the most powerful committees in Congress, the Ways and Means Committee, which handles tax problems. He writes bills to boost or cut taxes.
When expenses began piling up over the outbreak of the Korean war in mid-1950 Congress slapped excess profits tax on corporations and upped individual income taxes about 11 per cent.
Wanted Income Tax Cut
The excess profits tax was scheduled to die automatically next year 30 and the individual tax cut was due to end the same day Dec. 31, an arrangement giving some corporations a tax reduction six months before individuals get one.
Reed decided to move up the reduction for individuals six months and let them get a tax cut the same day as corporations, June 30. His like-minded committee voted overwhelmingly for such action.

The committee members were perhaps not unmindful that all House members must face the voters again in 1954 and that giving individuals a break on the same day corporations got it might not be harmful on election day.
Reed didn't pitch his desire for a tax cut on that plane. He said his Republican party had promised to reduce taxes in 1953 and that if this weren't done the people would have been "sold down the river."
Group Supports Reed
The vote in Reed's committee—made up of 15 Republicans and 10 Democrats—was 21 to 4. Twelve Republicans and nine Democrats were for cutting individual taxes June 30 instead of waiting till Dec. 31. One Democrat and three Republicans opposed this.
Their action was taken Feb. 16.

with the Eisenhower administration in office less than one month, and in spite of the President's request to go slow on whittling taxes until he had a chance to balance the budget first.
Plenty of Democrats and Republicans felt as Reed did, for various reasons, no doubt. But the Republican leadership in the House began to give Reed a bad time. His tax-cutting bill was sent to the rules committee, which clears bills to the House floor. The rules committee hasn't acted.
Reed fussed and fumed. Then Eisenhower set him back on his heels Tuesday night by saying he wanted no tax cuts this session. The President asked Congress to vote to keep the excess profits tax until Dec. 31, when it could expire at the same time as the boost in individual income taxes.
The President said this was necessary for a sound economy, but it also looked pretty sound from the viewpoint of political strategy. Individuals will be less apt to be mad—at having to wait for their tax reduction until the scheduled date, Dec. 31—so long as many corporations also have to wait until then for a cut in their taxes.

A congressman who reasoned that way wouldn't have much trouble switching from support of Reed to opposition to Reed. And Reed himself promptly faced a new problem:
If Congress was to consider and act on Eisenhower's request to extend the excess profits tax, Reed's committee should first hold hearings to let corporations and all other interested parties state their views.
If Reed refused to do this, he could be accused of discourteous defiance of the President. It might lose him support in the House. He agreed to hold the hearings, beginning June 1.

And—one day after Eisenhower spoke, some of Reed's own committee, who wanted taxes cut, began to weaken. Reed's fight may

RAIL STRIKE IS SETTLED AFTER 10-DAY TALKS

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (AP)—A strike against the Lehigh and New England Railroad by three AFL operating unions was settled yesterday following 10 days of arbitration.

C. H. Keenan, vice president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, one of the unions involved, said "all issues have been satisfactorily disposed of and the strike ballot cancelled. The settlement reached is entirely satisfactory to all parties concerned."

The other unions were the Order of Railway Conductors and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

Yesterday's settlement disposed of 88 grievances filed by the unions 10 days after the strike began on March 24. A stalemate in negotiations over a list of 47 grievances had touched off the walkout.

The original docket of 47 grievances was resolved by the National

Worley Measure Passed By House

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Senate today received a House-passed bill to permit a husband to answer a wife's charges against his character made in a court suit.

Under present law a wife may answer a husband's charges but the husband may not offer rebuttal testimony.

The measure, sponsored by Rep. Francis Worley (R-Adams) passed the House yesterday by a 119-56 vote.

Mediation Board in Washington and the union leaders agreed April 23 to recess the strike and return to work pending further negotiating.

Talks Deadlocked

The NMB then dropped the matter and the company and unions attempted to resolve the 88 grievances but the talks became deadlocked and on May 9 the union served notice they would resume their strike the following day.

Francis J. O'Neill, NMB chairman, learned of the situation and offered to mediate. The unions and railroad accepted the offer.

City Observe 1st World War I Battle

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—This city is perhaps the only place in the country which annually recalls the battle of Seicheprey, the first major land engagement involving United States troops in World War I.

Seven platoons in a machine gun battalion of the 102nd (Yankee) division, consisting chiefly of New Haven men, were surrounded by Germans near Seicheprey, France. A counterattack rescued them after 80 had been killed, 150 taken prisoners and 400 wounded. Each year, on the anniversary of the battle, city officials take part in a ceremony on New Haven green.

Cooked snap beans and cooked small whole onions make a good vegetable team. Season with salt, pepper and melted butter or margarine. Or serve the vegetables in a cream sauce to which paprika has been added.

FLOOD THREAT IN LOUISIANA

LAKE CHARLES, La. (AP)—The wildly spreading Calcasieu River swirled toward this Southwest Louisiana port city today with the biggest flood threat in 40 years and drove 1,250 families from their homes.

High water elsewhere in Louisiana caused two drownings, one at Kinder, 30 miles upstream from Lake Charles, and another at Crowley, 50 miles east of here.

Volunteers with bulldozers and trucks sweltered in warm coastal temperatures during the night to push up small dirt dikes to halt slowly rising waters in residential areas in the eastern part of this city.

Firetrucks pumped at the river invasion which threatened to sever U. S. Highway 90, linking the nearby Lake Charles Air Force Base with this city of 50,000.

Weatherman Paul Cook said the Calcasieu River, normally a tame little stream, would reach five feet over flood stage today; beyond that he would not predict. Flood stage is four feet.

PARIS EXERCISE

PARIS (AP) — Robert Ruau, Paris city councilman who once was a champion in catch-as-catch-can wrestling, won a $28 bet from a barber by proving he could walk 24 hours straight. He covered 75 miles in the streets of Paris' hilly Montmartre sector. The 200-pounder remarked: "I was just keeping in form."

HUMOR VARIES BETWEEN SEXES LAUGHS REVEAL

(By The Associated Press)
Do women have a sense of humor?

This short question, in various forms, seems to have provided fuel for masculine bull sessions since some forgotten Cro-Magnon man fractured his friends with the first farmer's daughter joke. Through the ages, a few things relating to this subject have been made abundantly clear. Most women believe implicitly that they possess this cherished quality and in any argument on the subject, can silence the opposition by asking pointedly how they have been able to survive in a man's world without being able to laugh things off. Also to most women it is something short of a compliment to be charged — however admiringly — with having a sense of humor "just like a man." Finally, most women think it's pretty funny, actually, to hear a man complain that women can't laugh at themselves. Each female has a memory of some hilarious episode when her accuser was the center of an accidental low comedy bit and met it grim-faced and wounded.

Opinions Differ
However, there are some indications that men and women, while they both laugh, tend to think different things are funny. Men, it seems to be, are more fond of jokes for the sake of their inherent humor whether it is an office hot-foot or a staged pie-throwing scene. Women like realism in their humor, real life or theatrical. Women would find it wonderfully funny if the Dutchess of Windsor and Clare Boothe Luce turned up at the same function in the same imported expensive hat. They think it's hysterical if father, on a midnight ice-box raid, enjoys a dog-food sandwich.

Shirley Booth, one of the most adroit actresses of our time, has been studying reactions of audiences to humor for years, and may just have come up with a clue on playing in a comedy, "The Time of the Cuckoo," on Broadway, and she remarked after a matinee that, judged by the reactions of audiences, an entirely different play was produced for evening audiences. The difference, of course, is that matinee audiences are largely composed of women; night audiences are co-ed.

Need More Time
"The matinee audience is much much slower to laugh," she said. "And as a performer, you want and need a fast, quick reaction. But I've decided that women — unless they are around men and take their cues from them — need a little time to digest humor."

"Men, where humor is concerned, catch it like a tossed ball and immediately throw it back as laughter. Women are much more introspective. They catch the hum then take it in to their minds, where they match it up with some experience of their own. If they can relate it to something, they laugh."

"Men don't need to do that relating, and apparently women don't have to either when they are with men. Or maybe they laugh when the men laugh and then think it over later."

This necessity to personalize, one way or another, could explain the average woman's lack of appreciation for practical jokes, and stories starting, "Did you hear the one about...?" Radio producers long ago, in soap opera, discovered the importance of association to women—heroines are women other women would like to be and the menaces are women other women can get up a good personal hate for. Such a line may be followed in their humor.

So next time the little lady doesn't break up over a story about women drivers, or women shoppers, or even about the two feuding mountaineers, don't despair on her sense of humor. Get her to tell you about how Mr. Robinson up the street built a divan in his cellar woodworking shop and had to knock out the wall to get it into the living room. She'll laugh until the tears fall.

Snow usually is about 10 times as deep as the water it creates when melted.

KIDNEYS MUST REMOVE EXCESS WASTE

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages. Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. JAPANESE WAR AGAINST OCEAN

OKAYAMA, Japan (AP)—The 200,000 people of Okayama are engaged in a battle with the sea to reclaim 2,700 acres for land-hungry Japan.

The city, with some government help, is now tackling a project to close the mouth of a big bay with a one-mile-long causeway.

The industrious people of Okayama during the past 300 years have expanded their territory into the sea inch by inch, year after year. The Kojima Bay, which Okayama faces, has been beaten back from an original 15,290 acres to the present 2,700 acres.

The citizens are now preparing the coup de grace. The bay will be ended by the middle of 1953.

The "kill bay" program started in October 1950. The total cost will be about $4,000,000.

The Bay will not turn into arable land overnight. It will become a fresh water lake into or three years, city officials said.

Then, watered by three rivers carrying thousands of tons of mud and sand from upstream, the lake will turn into land eventually. The bay is now very shallow, averaging five to six feet deep.

The immediate effect, Chief Engineer Shigeo Tokuno says, will be to make 12,590 acres of already reclaimed land free from salt water damage caused by occasional tidal flows. "The land will become fertile with more crops of rice assured," he said.

The causeway is being built by a so-called "pneumatic caisson" method. Heavy rocks are transported from the coast by barges to the causeway base and thrown in by hand. Gravel and sand are poured in by big pipes powered by 1,000 horsepower motors.

Then caissons—big strong boxes filled with concrete — are sunk to a depth of about 20 yards. The bottom of each caisson is concave, allowing several men to work inside and consolidate the base.

Upon completion, the causeway will have 12 water gates by which the water level of the new lake will be maintained always about half a yard lower than outer ocean. Ships can go in and out of the lake through another bigger lock.

STANLEYVILLE, Belgian Congo (AP)—Camille Ngombi, of Alberta, some fifty miles bel Stanleyville on the river Congo, recently paddled across the Congo river to get an award from the local chief for saving the chief's wife from drowning. He was offered two calabashes of palm wine, got drunk, paddled back, fell into the river and was drowned.

AGREEMENT ON CLOSED SHOP T-H CHANGES

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican members of the Senate Labor Committee were said today to have agreed on Taft-Hartley law amendments which would all but grant the closed shop to the building trades unions.

The amendments, now being put into a formal committee draft for public distribution next week, were described by senators who declined to be quoted by name.

The changes in the law, some of them promised by President Eisenhower in campaign speeches last fall, were agreed to in a meeting of the Republican members of the committee.

Changes Proposed
Committee Chairman H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.) is expected to announce them next Monday, making clear that no Republican member of the committee considers himself bound to the recommendations. Changes, possibly substantial, can be expected before the full committee agrees on a comprehensive bill to amend the law. The changes reportedly agreed upon include:

1. Unions whose members customarily work in "casual employment," such as construction work, would be allowed to write work contracts with an employer before work actually starts. And workers on the project would have to join the union seven days after work started.

2. Most public utilities and hundreds of small businesses would be exempt from all Taft-Hartley coverage.

Add Two To NLRB
3. Building service employees would be exempt. These include janitors, elevator operators and the like.

4. Two members would be added to the five-man National Labor Relations Board.

5. Workers out on a legal strike would be permitted to vote in NLRB election cases, even if replaced by other workers. Eisenhower has said the present law might be used to "bust unions" and his remark was widely interpreted as a reference to the present ban on voting by legal strikers.

The present law's 80-day no-strike provision for use in national emergency disputes would be retained.

ALLIES WORK ON NEW TRUCE PLAN

TOKYO (AP)—Allied headquarters today worked on a revised Korean truce plan to be presented to the Reds next week at Panmunjom, possibly on a "now or never" basis.

Authoritative sources who insisted on anonymity said the plan contained some phases of the India plan approved by the United Nations Assembly last December. The Assembly agreed that a political conference should settle the fate of 48,500 North Korean and Chinese

Ike To Be On TV Next Wednesday

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower will report on his administration in a program telecast nationally from 8:30 p.m. to 9 p.m., Eastern Standard Time, Wednesday.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty used the word "program" in announcing the telecast yesterday, and hinted that others besides the President will take part. It will be Eisenhower's first live telecast from the White House.

The four major TV networks will carry the program. Simultaneous radio broadcasts will be carried by the American Broadcasting Company another from 9:30 or 9:35 p.m. to 10 p.m., EST.

prisoners who refused to return to their homelands.

These sources said new ideas have been gained by the U. N. Command in long-range consultations with allies on the deadlocked prisoner exchange issue, main stumbling block to a Korean truce.

They took an optimistic view of the talks, which resume Monday, without revealing what the U. N. proposal will be.

They hinted a time limit on the talks may be enforced with the Communists being told to act "now or never."

About two million wombat (Australian koala) skins were sold on world markets in 1924.

LOW TAXES NOT ONLY LURE FOR NEW INDUSTRY

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The modern city needs more than a low tax rate to attract private industry, says the executive director of the Allegheny Community Development Conference.

Park H. Martin told a meeting of the Greater Philadelphia - Delaware-South Jersey Council Tuesday that industry is more interested now in what the city is doing about such things as streets, highways, parking, schools and health facilities.

"There must be intelligent, aggressive and continued leadership on the part of the political and civic body working as a team to accomplish such progress," said Martin.

Pittsburgh Clean Town
"From a dirty, smoggy town."

he went on, "Pittsburgh has emerged as one of the cleaner large industrial areas in America, if not in the world. The many other facts of the Pittsburgh improvement program probably would not have taken place without smoke control."

The conference was told that a proposed 40-foot channel in the Delaware River to Trenton, N. J., would some day make Philadelphia the largest port in the nation. J. Harry Labrum, honorary chairman of the board of governors of the council, told the meeting: "When the channel is dredged and other plans put into effect for the development of the (Delaware) valley, Philadelphia should become the largest port in the United States."

ALIEN TONGUE IS SPOKEN BY YOUNGER SET

OKLAHOMA CITY — A bad dad from Bagdad, as everyone digs the mumbles knows, isn't so tough. He just thinks he is.

And this bad dad isn't so hairy either; he may be nothing more than odd wad in a shot rod.

To the square from nowhere—the non-teenager—this is to introduce the mumbles, slang—teen slang, if you will.

It's spoken by the bad dads, the hairy ones, the odd wads and the cat men, Harry high schools and boy whales too. Its strange syllables can be heard wherever high schoolers gather, in malt shops, hamburger hangouts or even at home, to the dismay of parents.

So all right, get off that rib (translated—stop talking nonsense). What are the mumbles saying?

The bad dad from Bagdad, as you probably guessed, is a high school sheep in wolf's clothing. The hairy one is a big man on campus and the cat man is plainly flashy to the frills. Harry high school, in the words of one dating a college man, is a mere child—to be viewed with contempt from a lofty social perch.

The boy whale, naturally, isn't so slim. The odd wad—he's got rocks in his head. And so it goes with this alien tongue, the rules being that to be literate is to be square; to be square is to be to mumble is to be hep—so everybody, get hep!

If you're hep, you never sneak a smoke—you hack a weed, from which you get a large charge and not a big buzz. You ride in a shot rod, not an old jalopy. When you're bored or disgusted with it all, the thing to say is, "Oh hen." Want somebody to shut up? Then tell him, "Oh dummy."

A note of sarcasm—"Isn't that tender!" Or, "Oh well, that is pretty nice."

That's not so funny—"Old dear John."

Don't like—"I can't fight that."

Chelsea Welcomes Other Chelseans

LONDON — The London borough of Chelsea tosses out an invitation to the wide world: Any one living in any Chelsea anywhere on earth is welcome to drop in at the borough's town hall for free cocktails June 3. They will be served by Chelsea's woman mayor, Miss M. K. Cook.

It will be Chelsea's way of celebrating Queen Elizabeth's coronation. So far, the mayoress has hustled off special invitations to 10 Chelseans in the U. S. That's several more American Chelseans than the U. S. post office knows about, but Miss Cook says no matter—all are welcome.

It was the first time the Arizona firemen had ever met outside the United States. Special courtesy permits were issued to delegates and their wives by the Mexican government.

IKE OFFERED TO EASE RULES ON CZECHS BEFORE OATIS WAS FREE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Communist Czechoslovakia, in freeing Associated Press Correspondent William N. Oatis, acted six weeks after President Eisenhower offered to consider easing trade and travel restrictions against the Czechs.

The White House last night released copies of messages exchanged between Eisenhower and new Czech President Antonin Zapotocky.

Eisenhower's message, dated March 30, told Zapotocky that if he would release Oatis the U. S. would be willing to negotiate lifting of sanctions imposed against Czechoslovakia when the newsman was jailed 23 months ago.

Czech Radio Speaks
Zapotocky's reply, dated May 15, informed Eisenhower that Oatis was being pardoned on that day and would not have to complete the rest of his 10-year sentence on conviction of "spying."

U. S. Ambassador George Wadsworth and Czech Prime Minister Siroky handled the exchange between the two chief executives.

The Czech government through its controlled radio today called for the U. S. to terminate its economic restrictions against the country now that Oatis is free.

Radio Prague, heard in Vienna, broadcast the text of the notes to Czech listeners and quoted an editorial from the Czech Communist party organ, Rude Pravo, calling on Eisenhower to lift the sanctions.

In his public announcement of Oatis' freeing May 15, Zapotocky had said he acted on a direct appeal for mercy from Mrs. Oatis. At that time the State Department said "there wasn't any deal" between the U. S. and Czechoslovakia to free the newsman.

Oatis, on his return to the U. S. Monday, declined to say whether he served the U. S. government in any capacity while he was Associated Press correspondent at Prague. He said he would stand on the record of his trial for the time being.

Last night, however, he issued a statement in New York in which he denied ever spying for the American Embassy while a newsman in Czechoslovakia.

He said "the cause of my trouble" was that he got news tips from sources other than official Czech news outlets, then checked them with the U. S. Embassy in an effort to gain more information.

UNION WILL BE AFFECTED BY FALSE OATH

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Labor Relations Board has ruled that a union can have its bargaining rights challenged by another labor group if one of its officers has been convicted of filing a false non-Communist oath.

The ruling was made yesterday in a case involving rival unions at the Kind and Knox Gelatine Co., Camden, N. J.

The board has generally ruled before that one union cannot challenge another's bargaining right while it has a contract with the company. Yesterday's case was cited as an exception to this rule.

Local 80A of the CIO Packinghouse Workers now holds bargaining rights at the plant under a one-year contract. One of its officers, Anthony Valentino, was convicted last October of filing a false non-Communist oath. The oaths must be filed under the Taft-Hartley law before a union can enjoy NLRB privileges.

The NLRB ruling held that the contract was negotiated while Valentino's affidavit was fraudulent.

The board decided that the AFL Brotherhood of Firemen, Oilers and Powerhouse Operators was entitled, under the circumstances, to challenge the bargaining rights of the incumbent Packinghouse Workers in three units of maintenance employees.

The Packinghouse Workers up to now have represented all maintenance and production employees. An election was ordered within 30 days among seven employees in the three maintenance units to determine whether they want to switch to the AFL union or continue to be represented by the CIO union.

HALLECK SAYS OUTLOOK GOOD ON PROFITS TAX

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican Leader Halleck of Indiana said today he was "very optimistic" about chances for House approval of President Eisenhower's request to extend the excess profits tax on business.

But Republican opponents of the measure disclosed a series of strategy moves aimed at defeating the proposal or at least amending it. These were developments after a full day of backstage maneuvering yesterday on an issue that has developed into one of the sternest tests so far of Eisenhower's leadership with Congress.

At a conference with Halleck and House Speaker Joseph Martin (R-Mass), Republican members of the House Ways and Means Committee agreed to hold hearings June 1-10 on Eisenhower's request.

This request, sent formally to Congress yesterday after being outlined in the President's radio talk Tuesday night, exhorts Congress to cut no taxes this year.

Eisenhower said he wants lower taxes as much as anybody but he said that would be inflationary. The House Ways and Means Committee's decision to hold hearings on Eisenhower's request was a victory for the administration. Chairman Daniel A. Reed (R-NY) has been adamant in insisting on tax cuts, and some Republicans had doubted whether Eisenhower's plan would ever be brought before the committee.

Further, the administration made inroads on what previously had been a solid lineup of all 15 committee Republicans against any extension of the excess profits tax, now bringing an estimated 2 to 2½ billion dollars a year.

Several who attended the conference said it was clear some Republican committee members have switched over and will support the President.

Estimates on just how many switched ranged from three to six and more. Republican leaders obviously counted on heavy support from the 10 Democrats on the committee to help put the proposal over.

The committee apparently holds the key. Leaders generally agreed the bill would clear the House and Senate floors. But all tax bills normally must start in the ways and means group.
